

CHESAPEAKE STATE OF THE SCHOOLS BREAKFAST

On October 26, 2017, the Chesapeake Public Schools Educational Foundation is sponsoring a State of the Schools address and breakfast at the Chesapeake Conference Center for parents, business leaders, community members, and educators. Dr. James T. Roberts, superintendent of schools, will address the unique strengths, challenges, and upcoming opportunities for our Chesapeake Public Schools. An open question and answer session with those in attendance will follow the address. This event seeks to keep the vital lines of communication open with Chesapeake residents regarding the future of our public schools, our children, and our city. We are seeking additional sponsors for this important community event at the following levels:

Presenting Sponsor

- $5,000 gift
- Includes a table for 10 with table signage at the event
- Business will be listed on a large banner and on the foundation and school system websites
- Full page ad in event program

Gold Sponsor
